

Prize-Winning Biography Recipe

1. Choose someone who has made a contribution to society.
 - * The person could be someone who is important in your life, an artist, scientist, writer, sports figure, etc.
2. Research the ingredients you will need for this recipe (see worksheet)

Read newspapers, encyclopedias, books, or interview the person or someone who knows or knew the person. Take notes as you research.
3. After you gather the ingredients for the biography start to assemble your recipe in the following order:
 - * Write a title - include the person's name
 - * Write an introduction - include an interesting fact that will entice the reader and include the person's name
 - * Add several cups of paragraphs sprinkled with the information you gathered during your research:
 - information about the person's childhood
 - information about the person's accomplishments and talents
 - a conclusion that includes your personal opinion about the person and why you feel he/she is important
6. Blend above ingredients gently while adding quotes and facts. Review use ingredients checklist prior to baking in a moderate oven.