

RECIPE FOR COOKING UP A NEWS STORY

1. Choose a news event you think is important for other people to know about.
 - * A news story gives important facts and explanations about a person, place or thing. It explains and informs.
2. Prep by sifting together the following ingredients (use research worksheet):
 - * Research your story and gather as much information as you can.
 - * Choose more than one source for your information.
 - * Check each fact to make sure it is correct.
 - * Use the 5 W's and H (who, what, where, when, why and how)
3. Add the sifted ingredients from step 2 to the following ingredients:
 - * A Headline or Title
 - * The Lead - the beginning of a news story that is written to make the reader want to read more.
 - * 2-3 cups of Paragraphs that include facts that help explain the event.
 - * A Conclusion that includes new and important information.
4. Add flavor by sprinkling your story with the following:
 - * Quotes
 - * Detailed factual information about the event
5. Mix thoroughly (use ingredients checklist) and broil under an open flame.
