

A graphic of a spiral-bound notebook with a green highlighter on the right side. The spiral binding is at the top. The page contains a checklist for writing a persuasive essay.

PERSUASSIVE ESSAY INGREDIENT CHECKLIST

- I followed the directions for writing a persuasive essay.
- I wrote a meaningful title.
- I wrote an introduction that informed the reader of my topic and the differing opinions related to it.
- I wrote a paragraph that summarizes the opinions of those who disagree with me.
- I wrote a paragraph that summarizes my viewpoint.
- I included supporting details such as quotes, facts, statistics and examples.
- I wrote a conclusion that lets the reader know how the problem can be solved.
- I checked my writing for misspelled words.
- I checked my writing for errors in punctuation.
- My paper is neat and easy to read.